Pilgrimage to Rome.

If any of our readers or their families are contemplating a trip to Europe this coming summer, why not encourage and patronize the one conducted by McGurkin's Catholic Tours, 151 Broadway, New York City.

You would be sure of an audience with the Holy Father, see Europe in a substantial manner, be in good company and save money as against traveling independently.

OBITUARY.

Slattery.

Father M. Slattery, who was a native of Tallow county, Waterford, Ireland, and vicar general of the diocese of Goulburn, died recently. He was pastor of Waaga, Wagga, Australia, for many years. In 1883 Father Slattery, accompanied by the present bishop of Goulburn, Rt. Rev. John Gallagher, visited Salt Lake and was the guest of Bishop Scanlan, who then resided in the rear of St. Mary's church. Though insured to hardship in the Australian bush, nowhere did the visitors see primitive apostolic missionary life so faithfully carried out as at Salt Lake. Between our bishop and the two Australian missionaries a warm friendship has existed since their visit to this city. R. I. P.

Frey.

Lottie B. Frey, of Genoa, Nevada, who died at Reno on the 3rd instant, was highly esteemed and universally respected by all who knew the young lady. Her parents have the sympathy of all the inhabitants of Genoa, where the deceased was a general favorite. Her brother, William D. Frey, and wife, of Clear Creek, Utah, came to Salt Lake on Saturday, intending to be present at the funeral, which took place on Sunday, but as they could not reach here in time they discontinued their journey and returned home on Monday. Before returning both attended a Requiem Mass and received Holy Communion.

Knights of Columbus.

At the last meeting of Salt Lake council No. 62, Knights of Columbus, held Tuesday evening, May 7, two motions were passed by unanimous consent of the members, which will result in the great glory of the organization for many years to come. The knights by their action have placed themselves on record as imbued with a true Catholic spirit, and as endowed with the best qualities of a fraternal organization. It is moreover a noteworthy fact of this action that it was almost spontaneous and was carried through without a dissenting voice.

The first motion presented called for an appropriation by private subscription for an important work in the finishing touches on the cathedral. The knights will assume the expense of putting down the floor in the new cathedral. A committee was appointed to convey the good news to the bishop, who received the members most cordially and thanked them most heartily for their generous offer. The committee in carrying out their instructions expressed to Bishop Scanlan the high esteem in which he was held by all members of the order, and assured him that it was in his honor that they had done for the Catholics of the west that one of the great proofs of his labor, the building of this beautiful house of worship in their midst. The estimated cost of this work is $1,000. Any surplus in the subscription will also be turned over to the bishop to be applied to any purpose he may desire.

The second motion carried had reference to the maintaining of a room in the Holy Cross hospital for the benefit of sick members of the council. Appropriation was liberally made for this purpose also. Dr. Hughes and Edwards were appointed to make arrangements with the hospital.

W. J. Halloran, chairman of the cathedral committee, royally entertained the other members at the Alta club on Monday and Wednesday.

The last meeting of the council was a large one. Another project of great importance was taken up and will be acted upon at a later date.

The entertainment committee of the council is preparing to give visiting members a gala time on May 25, the day set for the initiation of the third degree.

Care of the Eyes.

On rising in the morning the eyes should be bathed gently in cold water. Twenty passes are said to be decidedly strengthening. While using them close your eyes and rest at intervals of an hour or two, for the strain of concentrating the eyes, etc., etc. It is a tedious and tiresome task, and the taxing of the eyes, which cannot complain save after years of irreparable neglect. When dust settles in the eyes warm water will soothe them of all inflammation that would otherwise follow.

The cathedral choir will have rehearsal on Saturday of this week, at 8 o'clock.

Bath and Beauty.

It is necessary for a person to take as good care of the body as the face to obtain the clear, healthy complexion so much desired by all. A cold bath every morning for very vigorous persons, or once or twice a week, and thoroughly rubbing with a coarse towel or flesh brush mornings when the bath is not taken, for the less robust is necessary to keep the action of the skin in health and very invigorating. After warm baths at night a dash of cold water will prevent chills. Clothing worn during the day should never be slept in, and that worn at night should be exposed during the day to the fresh air. Quantities of moisture should be given off every day and mostly absorbed by clothing. Exposure to air and sunlight purifies the clothing and bedding of the poisons which nature is trying to get rid of and which would otherwise be brought again in contact with the body. By following these healthful everyday directions and taking equally good care of the face you will soon notice a decided improvement in the tone of your whole system.

Instructions for the children who are preparing for First Holy Communion are given at the cathedral every Wednesday and Friday, at 4 o'clock, and Sunday at 9:30.

TH E THOUGHTS OF YOUTH.

Boy's Ambition Probably Shared by Many of His Age.

Mrs. M. G. Black of Gardiner, Ore., who has received one of the last awards of the Carnegie hero fund for having three young girls from drowning, was talking about bravery the other day.

"Do I think that bravery, heroism, can be cultivated?" Yes," she said, "in a sense I do. Heroism is unselfishness carried to its highest point, and children can certainly be trained to be unselfish."

"There is only one way to teach them that, though, and that is the way of kindness. Beat and bully children, and they won't grow up unselfish, but the opposite."

"I knew a little boy," she said, "once, at a party, I had a long conversation with him."

"And," I said, as I helped him decorate a pink egg, "what are you going to do when you grow up?"

"Looking up from the egg with a frown, he answered:

"Whip papa."

A Thoughtless Preacher.

A noted evangelist was preaching the other day in an uptown church. The family who entertained him had a son who was usually fond of attending service. When his parents were ready little Charles flatly refused to go with them.

"I don't want to go to church," he declared.

"What's the matter?" asked the mother, much surprised, "are you ill?"

"No, but I heard Doctor" confessed the child.

"Oh, Charles, that's a wicked thing to say," gasped the mother. "Tell mother why."

"Well," said Charles, "the preacher is so long that I can't keep awake and he preaches so loud that I can't go to sleep."

The Cocaine Curse.

The cocaine evil is more rampant in some southern cities than it is here, and the need of measures of special severity to repress it is fully recognized. The drug is so easy to conceal and carry about and its effect upon the nervous system so prompt and potent that its use seems to have come about as a handy substitute for alcohol, warranted to "make the drunk come" quicker than the strongest anglefoot whisky. At all events it has taken hold on an element of the population in various cities, and as its use spreads it leaves a trail of insanity and death. The increase of insanity among the colored population is already very marked, and this new vice will augment the influences that are already overcrowding the public asylums.—Baltimore News.
